SUBJECT: RESULTS OF U.S.-RUSSIA PRESIDENTIAL SUMMIT: DEMARCHE DELIVERED

REF: SECSTATE 71326

Classified By: Acting Political Counselor Les Viguerie for reasons 1.4
(B,D)

¶1. (C) In a July 24 meeting Poloff delivered reftel demarche to Indian Ministry of Foreign Affairs Deputy Secretary (Russia) Rahul Shrivastava. He welcomed the information and said it was useful to get a more detailed readout. Shrivastava noted that he did not believe that Russia's main irritants in its bilateral relationship with the U.S. had been adequately addressed by the Presidential Summit. Furthermore, he warned against developing an extensive bilateral framework for the U.S.-Russia relationship, as India's experience suggests the best way to conduct relations with Russia is within a few tightly controlled, high-level mechanisms.
